Presidents' Message

On behalf of the Caledon Agricultural Society, and Hall Exhibits Division, we would like to welcome you to our 151st Caledon Fair.

Our theme this year is "Country Fresh Family Fun". We like to balance entertainment, and amusements with the exhibiting and showing the agricultural aspect for the young and old.

The Caledon Fair has been a tradition for many generations and we would like to carry this tradition on for many more generations.

We would gratefully thank all our directors, members, volunteers and all of the community for making this fair great.

We invite you to come out, take part and enjoy our 151st Caledon Fair.

Junior Ambassador's Message

I would like to thank everyone who is involved in making our fair what it is today. Without you, we would not have amazing opportunities like the Ambassador Program to participate in, so close to home.

I have had an outstanding year representing, and promoting the Caledon Fair. It has been a pleasure visiting other local fairs, the District 5 meeting, Peel 4H Awards Night, Peel Farm Family of the Year, our Annual Meeting, and the Plowing Match, and bringing greetings on behalf of the Caledon Agricultural Society.

Out of all of these events the Plowing Match was my favourite. I got to drive a tractor, and plow a couple of rows. In the beginning I was so scared, but after I did one row, I was fine. It was very exciting to have an opportunity to try something new.

Being the Caledon Junior Fair Ambassador was an amazing experience, and I encourage you to come out and compete. It is a great opportunity to get involved in your community, meet new people, and experience new things.

The best way to achieve is to set goals and succeed.

I wish the 2011 Caledon Fair sunshine and good times!

Kate Henry,
2010 Caledon Fair Junior Ambassador

Senior Ambassador's Message

It has been an amazing experience being the 2010 Caledon Fair Ambassador. I have experienced the commitment and dedication of the volunteers, and I would like to congratulate them for keeping the Caledon Fair a fun filled family tradition.

As Caledon Fair Ambassador I have had the pleasure of being a part of the Caledon Fair, and the Caledon Strawberry Festival. I have been honoured to represent the Caledon Agricultural Society at other local fairs, After the Fair Bash, Bolton Santa Claus Parade, Dufferin-Peel Plowing Match, Peel 4H Awards, Peel Farm Family of the Year Award, District #5 Meeting, and the OoAS Convention in Toronto.

Representing Caledon Fair is a pleasure, and should be experienced to the fullest. It provides the opportunity to improve on public speaking, learn about agriculture, yourself, and represent a remarkable fair that is now celebrating its 151st year.

It is a comfort to have your continued support, and encouragement as I move forward to compete at the 2011 Canadian National Exhibition for the CNE Ambassador of the Fairs title.

This past year has been amazing. To the Caledon Agricultural Society, and the Caledon Community, thank you!

Lindsay Bebbington,
2010 Caledon Fair Ambassador
